- Preparing for and strengthening resilience to increased climate change variability, major disasters and emergency events.
- Understanding the challenges of Queensland’s vast geography, diversity of infrastructure (including digital infrastructure), access to skilled labour, urban migration and population demographics, and leveraging our regional presence to tailor programs to support local economies and regional economic resilience.
- Fostering a workforce that is engaged, capable and diverse with a strong and ethical culture.
- Leveraging private sector investment to create jobs for Queenslanders and encourage growth in emerging and existing industries.
- Harnessing our productive and collaborative stakeholder relationships, including the Australian Government, universities, local government, economic development agencies, industry and research organisations to deliver outcomes.
- Planning communities that are liveable, and environmentally and socially sustainable to ensure prosperity and quality of life for future generations.
